EXPERIENCE

Katie Collins is an associate in the Firm's Labor & Employment practice group.

Katie has successfully represented clients in all areas of employment law, including the defense of claims involving workplace discrimination, harassment, retaliation, wrongful termination, wage and hour issues, Private Attorneys General Act (PAGA) actions, and class actions. Additionally, she provides advice and counsel to employers concerning their workplace policies, practices, and personnel decisions.

Katie regularly assists employers in all aspects of their employment relationship with their employees, including on such matters as recruiting and hiring; employment agreements and compensation plans; protection of trade secrets; wage and hour laws; independent contractor status; performance standards and disciplinary actions; privacy; leaves of absence and reasonable accommodations; preventing discrimination, harassment, and retaliation; preventing and responding to theft and embezzlement; reductions in force, terminations, and layoffs; and compliance with other state and federal employment laws.

While attending law school at Pepperdine University, Katie obtained a Certificate in Dispute Resolution from the highly-ranked Straus Institute for Dispute Resolution. Katie's time at the Straus Institute allowed her the opportunity to gain practical experience learning to negotiate, mediate, and arbitrate.
